The Saltire is a bi-monthly newsletter of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. Through feature stories, photographs and updates on events past and future, The Saltire provides a window into the vibrant life of our parish family. Historically, a "saltire" is the X-shaped cross associated with St. Andrew. For us, as for him, it is a symbol of faith and life!

Vestry Considers Church Safety and Hospitality

By The Rev. John Rohrs

At our recent Vestry Retreat, we asked Vestry members to consider what helps them feel safe at church. Some responses highlighted physical safety, such as being familiar with their surroundings, knowing emergency plans and exit routes, and so forth. Other responses were more about emotional safety and connection, such as a sense of belonging to a community, feeling welcomed and loved. These various responses underscored that feeling safe has to do with both physical security and hospitality. It involves emergency planning and preparation, as well as attention to how we welcome and care for newcomers and old-timers alike. In response to this discussion, the Vestry is working to adopt a set of safety procedures and emergency guidelines, while also undertaking a few specific projects to improve our hospitality.

The safety procedures and emergency guidelines will cover a host of relevant topics – everything from building security to power outages, from fire evacuations to medical emergencies, from taking shelter in a storm to dealing with a violent threat. These scenarios and others will be compiled in a simple guide – to be housed in the Narthex, the Kitchen, and the Parish Administrator's Office – for

Traveling the Journey of Lent, Inside and Out

By The Rev. John Rohrs

The season of Lent, extending forty days before Easter, is a time of reflection and renewal. For many, it is a time of added contemplation and prayer, a time to take on a new spiritual practice or to give up a particular habit or luxury in order to focus our hearts on God. In that sense, it is a time of internal journeying.

On the other hand, we know intrinsically that our inner lives are often manifest in our outer lives. Contemplation leads to action. That's why loving God and loving our neighbors are two aspects of the same great commandment. During this Lenten season at St. Andrew's, we are offering a host of programs that invite us staff, Vestry members, and others to reference as needed. It will include emergency numbers, a listing of emergency equipment, rally points for evacuation, and more. One new recommendation is the potential purchase of two defibrillators, for use in the case of a heart emergency. We are looking at cost estimates now. If purchased, these units likely would be located in the Narthex and in White Hall.

At the same time, we discussed the importance of hospitality. We reviewed the lead role that ushers and greeters play in helping everyone feel welcome. We also acknowledged that good hospitality requires all of us to be on the lookout for people who are new or visiting. One of the gifts of St. Andrew's is our friendly and affirming environment, but it still takes constant attention; we all need to remember to wear our nametags and to be sure that no one is ever standing alone at coffee hour or at a parish event. Good hospitality also reinforces the safety of all our parishioners, because we would be aware if someone was feeling ill or distressed, or otherwise creating cause for concern.

One specific recommendation related to hospitality is the need for improved wheelchair-accessible seating in the church. Right now, someone in a wheelchair has to sit out in front of the first pew, likely feeling rather exposed and not able to share a pew with family or friends. A new proposal would have us shorten an existing pew, perhaps the first row in front of the pulpit, so that one or two people in wheelchairs could sit comfortably within the body of the congregation, alongside family and friends. The Vestry is still considering different options and securing a cost estimate for the work, but we likely will move forward soon.

As always, if you have questions, concerns, or ideas related to church safety and hospitality, please let the clergy, staff or Vestry know. We are so fortunate to be part of a faithful congregation of folks who love and support each other at all times, and who readily welcome others into our church family. This important work is an extension of that.

to take part in both this inward and outward journey.

A collection of resources is available in White Hall and also on our church website to guide parishioners' private devotion. Harper Bathel created a meditation calendar for all ages, which is an especially great resource for families. We are also inviting all parishioners to take part in The Good Book Club, a daily practice of reading the books of Luke and Acts bit by bit throughout the Lenten and Easter season. Daily readings are available at www.goodbookclub.org or in White Hall.

Meanwhile, other offerings will help us direct our faith outward. On Sunday, February 18 at 2:00 p.m., we will gather in White Hall for our annual tradition of packing 12,000+ meals for Rise Against Hunger. It is always a great event for all ages. A few weeks later, on February 28, we will begin our week of hosting the Norfolk Emergency Shelter (NEST), to accommodate about 60 homeless guests. A four week Adult Forum series, running on Sunday mornings at 9:15 a.m. from February 25 through March 18, will highlight The Church in the Public Square. Special guest speakers will help us reflect on racial justice and dialogue, faithful concern for the environment and sea level rise, the role of the church in suicide prevention, and the state of inter-religious discourse today. A corresponding Lenten Supper Series, held in conjunction with Christ and St. Luke's on Tuesday evenings beginning on February 27, will bridge these themes explicitly, while connecting our spiritual lives with the realities and divisions of today's world. The Series is entitled Reframing Lent: Contemplation, Confession, Repentance and Justice in a Time of Upheaval. Sign up sheets for the Supper Series will be available in White Hall. Please join us during this holy season as we grow together in faith and in mission.

Please welcome our newcomers and help them feel at home. It helps to remember this rule of thumb for coffee hour and other parish events: spend the first three minutes introducing yourself to someone you don't know!

Also, remember to please wear your nametags during coffee hour so that we can all get to know one another better and build community.

Vestry Updates

- At the January meeting of the Vestry, we approved a proposal from Viccellio Construction to repair the flat roof over the sacristy, which had leaked during the big snowstorm that month. We also noted the beginning of the work on the front walkway into the church, which is also being handled by Viccellio Construction. It will look great when it's done.
- The January Vestry retreat is covered fully in the lead article of this newsletter.
